

Seminar on 18 December 2015, Friday Legal Aspects of Design-Build Contracts

CPD 1214/2015

(6th intake in 2015 for Property & Construction Professionals, and Government Officials)

Co-organized with HKIE for CPD

There are more and more design-build contracts in use in Hong Kong. With the size and extent of projects adopting them growing, the law regulating them are also getting more complicated. In view of these, there is a need to enhance understanding on key legal issues and practices pertaining to the use of such design-build contracts.

This seminar aims at providing a critical review and update of the legal aspects concerning the common issues in the application of design-build contracts in Hong Kong. Through discussion of lessons learnt from decided cases, the law and practice on areas that those involved need to be alerted to are highlighted. We highly recommend participants to enroll themselves to our Contract Law Essentials seminar before taking this seminar.

- Design-build contract practice: legal principles, standard forms and personnel
- Employer's requirements: design input by employer, design development, constraints & restrictions, performance of design work, timing and coordination
- Contractor's proposals: principles, design at tender stage, approvals, design liability and qualifications
- Conditions of contract: key clauses overview and their interpretation
- Professional advisors / services and insurance
- Situation discussion / case study exercises
