Property Law Essential for Executives, Managers and Officials –
Legal Rights of Land Uses and Ownership

Brand New Seminar for Executives, Professionals and Government Officials

Executives, professionals and government officials are much more heavily involved in handling matters involving property right and ownership than before in their daily tasks. Thus, the key principles have to be properly understood for managing commercial risks and keep out of troubles. This seminar is tailored for non-lawyers and it provides a comprehensive yet practical roadmap to the legal aspects involving the administration or business uses of land for enabling direct application to their daily work situations. Further, it goes on to outline the key challenges and area that those involved need to be specifically alerted to.

- Type of property and definition of land
- Equity principles affecting property rights
- Ownership and co-ownership of land
- Land registration and titles
- Multi-storey building ownership and management
- Mortgages
- License, easements and rights of way
- Traps and pitfalls in practice
- Case Studies
