

Seminar on
“Legal Aspects of Design-Build-Operate Contracts”

Successfully Held on 17 January 2018

There are more and more design-build-operate contracts in use in Hong Kong. With the size and extent of projects adopting them growing, the law regulating them are also getting more complicated. In view of these, there is a need to enhance understanding on key legal issues and practices pertaining to the use of such design-build-operate contracts.

This seminar aims at providing a critical review and update of the legal aspects concerning the common issues in the application of design-build-operate contract in Hong Kong. Through discussion of lessons learnt from decided cases, the law and practice on areas that those involved need to be alerted to are highlighted.

The Seminar on “Legal Aspects of Design-Build-Operate Contracts” was successfully held on 17 January 2018. Feedbacks are very positive. The visiting lecturers were Mr. Danny Chan, Barrister-at-Law and Mr. Raymond Kong, Barrister-at-Law.
