

Seminar on
Essentials of Contract Law

What Every Business Manager has to Know

(Jointly organised with HKMA)

Successfully Held on 19 July 2017

Legal knowledge is becoming more and more important to officers, professionals, managers and executives for enabling the proper discharge of their duties. For every business managers, legal knowledge is of vital importance to enable the proper discharge of the duties and functions in handling their day-to-day commercial transactions and in keeping their organizations out of trouble. With insightful cases, this seminar provides a comprehensive guide to the key legal principles, with a view to facilitating their direct application by professionals and managers to daily work situations.

The Seminar on “Essentials of Contract Law” was successfully held on 19 July 2017. The visiting lecturers were Mr. Matthew Cheung, Barrister-at-law and Mr. Charles Chan, Barrister-at-law.