

Seminar on Essentials of Contract Law

(Organised by HKMA, supported by HKLTI)

Successfully Held on 6 November 2019

Legal knowledge is becoming more and more important to officers, professionals, managers and executives for enabling the proper discharge of their duties. For every business managers, legal knowledge is of vital importance to enable the proper discharge of the duties and functions in handling their day-to-day commercial transactions and in keeping their organizations out of trouble.

With insightful cases, this seminar provides a comprehensive guide to the key legal principles, with a view to facilitating their direct application by professionals and managers to daily work situations.

The Seminar on “Essentials of Contract Law” was successfully held on 6 November 2019. The visiting lecturer was Ms. Polly Chuang, Barrister-at-law.