

Seminar on Legal English for Non-legal Engineers

(Jointly organised with IfE, HKPU)

Successfully Held on 3 March 2017

Trial lawyers are trained with English language skills to persuade people, to communicate arguments and to bring results. In today's business environment, engineers are essentially doing the same in their daily jobs, but merely doing them without a courtroom setting

The Seminar on "Legal English for Non-legal Engineers" was successfully held on 3 March 2017. The visiting lecturer was Ms. Claris Kwong, Barrister-at-law.
